

Chalfont and District Badminton Association (CADBA) Privacy Policy and Data Protection Statement

CADBA is a “not for profit organisation” that uses personal data purely for its own administrative activities and as such it is not registered with the Information Commissioner's Office.

Personal data held includes Name, Address, Telephone Numbers and Email Addresses.

This data is available to the CADBA Committee.

With the permission of the parties involved, the data of club officers and team captains may be published in the CADBA handbook and on the CADBA website purely for contact purposes.

This data is not shared with any other organisation.